

2021-22 Preview

The 2021-22 Salukis return 97 percent of their scoring and add four exciting newcomers in the third year of the Bryan Mullins era.

Already in his young coaching career, Mullins has earned distinction as one of ESPN's "40 under 40" best coaches under 40 years old, and he has guided SIU to its best start (7-0 last season) since 1947. The Salukis return all their major contributors and could take a leap under Mullins, who led SIU to its last NCAA Tournament appearance when he was the point guard for SIU's 2007 Sweet Sixteen team.

The team is led by Marcus Domask, the 2020 MVC Newcomer and Freshman of the Year. Domask missed the final 16 games of the 2020-21 season with an injury but is fully healthy and has averaged 14.2 points over 42 career games. Along with Domask, fellow juniors Lance Jones and Trent Brown return for their third season in Carbondale. Jones stepped up during Domask's injury and was named Third Team All-MVC last season while leading the MVC in 3-point field goal percentage. Brown started all 26 games as a sophomore last year while connecting on 39 percent of his 3-point field goal attempts.

Ben Harvey, a transfer from Eastern Illinois, sat out the 2019-20 season but averaged 9.7 points per game as a redshirt sophomore last year. Steven Verplancken, a Division II transfer from Glenville State, averaged 7 ppg last year in his first season at SIU and started 16 games. Joining the loaded junior class is J.D. Muila, a center from Canada who was expected to play a major role last season before a season-ending knee injury.

Anthony D'Avanzo, Ben Coupet, and Will Keller are SIU's three seniors. D'Avanzo is using his year of COVID relief after averaging 7.5 points and 3.9 rebounds as a graduate transfer last season. Coupet is a new graduate transfer for 2021-22. A native of Chicago, Coupet averaged double figures each of the last two years at Little Rock and won a conference title there in 2019-20.

Dalton Banks, Kyler Filewich, and Chris Cross comprise the sophomore class. Filewich earned a spot on the MVC All-Freshman Team last year, and Banks has added 15 pounds of muscle for his sophomore season after being a major contributor as a freshman (6.2 ppg, 3.7 rpg, 2.2 apg in 25.5 minutes).

Troy D'Amico, Scottie Ebube, and Foster Wonders are all freshmen in 2021-22, and all three were ranked in the top-10 in their respective states high school rankings. Wonders was the runner-up for Mr. Basketball in Michigan, and both Ebube and D'Amico are in-state products from the Chicago area.

Southern Illinois University welcomed home one of its all-time greats, naming Bryan Mullins as the school's 14th men's basketball head coach on March 20, 2019.

Mullins is a member of the Saluki Hall of Fame, in recognition of a four-year career (2006-09) in which he set a school record for assists and was the point guard for two NCAA Tournament teams (2006, 2007) and an NIT squad (2008). Southern Illinois advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2007, won a school-record 29 games and finished the season at a school-best No. 11 national ranking.

In two seasons at the helm of the program, Mullins has made significant strides in the rebuilding process. In 2019-20, SIU won seven-straight MVC games and 10-straight home games, the longest such streaks at SIU since 2008. The Salukis were one of the best defensive teams in the nation and led the MVC in scoring defense for the first time since 2007, ranking 15th nationally. In 2020-21, the program got off to a 7-0 start, the best for the program since 1948. As a part of that streak, SIU beat Butler at Hinkle Fieldhouse, snapping Butler's nation-leading 59-game nonconference home court winning streak. Butler had not lost a nonconference home game since 2012 prior to SIU's win at Hinkle Fieldhouse in December 2020.

Mullins has also brought in heralded recruiting classes, starting with 2019 Wisconsin Mr. Basketball Marcus Domask. Mullins has also signed 2021 Michigan Mr. Basketball runner-up Foster Wonders and two of the top-10 rated players in the state of Illinois, including the program's highest-rated in-state recruit since 2008 in Niles Notre Dame's Troy D'Amico.

Once on campus, Mullins has developed the talent into some of the best in the MVC. Domask was named the MVC Newcomer of the year and Freshman of the Year in 2020 and was a second-team All-MVC choice. Lance Jones was named an All-MVC pick in 2021, and Kyler Filewich was named to the league's All-Freshman team.

After the 2019-20 season, Mullins narrowly finished second in the voting for MVC Coach of the Year honors and was named to ESPN's 40 under 40 list of top coaches under 40 years old. He was also a finalist for the Joe B. Hall Award, given to the nation's top first-year head coach. After SIU's win at Butler, Mullins was named the HoopDirt National Coach of the Week.

After graduating from SIU in 2009, Mullins embarked upon a four-year professional career in France. He retired in 2013 and joined Porter Moser's staff at Loyola as the director of operations. Mullins ascended to assistant coach in 2015 and associate head coach in 2018, helping the Ramblers during their historic 2018 season in which the team won a school-record 32 games, advanced to the Final Four and finished the season with a No. 7 national ranking.

Loyola won back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference championships in 2018 and 2019, and Mullins was a key factor in the program's success, recruiting All-Conference players such as Cameron Krutwig and 2019 MVC Player of the Year Marques Townes.

Mullins was a two-time MVC Defensive Player of the Year at Southern Illinois and earned MVC All-Defensive Team recognition in each of his four seasons with the Salukis. As a freshman, the 6-foot-2 guard led the MVC and ranked seventh in the nation in steals (2.85 spg) and was named to the MVC's All-Newcomer and All-Defensive teams.

Off the court, Mullins graduated from Southern with a degree in finance and a perfect 4.0 cumulative grade-point average. He was a three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete Team pick and won the 2009 MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award. A two-time Academic All-American, Mullins won the MVC's Dr. Charlotte West Scholar-Athlete award and President's Council Academic award.
